CLASS SONG

(Tune-"Moments To Remember")
Words by Julia Scott Todd,
Ann Rhett, Frances Walters

The time has come when we must part,
We'll miss Orange High with all our heart.
We will have these Moments To Remember.

Our Senior Prom, and all the fun,
The games we've lost, the games we've won,
We'll have these Moments To Remember.

And as we grow much wiser,
And the present disappears,
The kind advice of faculty
Will guide us through the years.

Though other nights and other days
Will find us gone our separate ways,
We'll have Dear Orange To Remember.

Betty and Joe win in Voice of Democracy Contest.

Luck always

Seniors Take Part In Statewide Tests

The ACE tests, which were administered to the senior class by Mr. Stewitts last week, are part of the total testing program of Orange County High School. This ACE testing program is required of all seniors of accredited high schools throughout the state.

The selection of the testing material and its being made into a total test booklet was carried on by Drs. L. L. and T. G. Thurstone for the American Council on Education.

The test was made up of six parts. These parts were in the fields of arithmetic, vocabulary completion, figure analogies, English vocabulary in antonyms and synonyms, arithmetical number series, and verbal word relations. These tests are corrected mechanically in the Test Bureau of the State Department of Education in Richmond. Each high school throughout the state receives its report from the bureau in the early spring. The reports made at that time read as the Q, L, and T scores.

The purpose of this testing program is two-fold: first, to the student who is not college bound, it serves as an index to some future employer showing the student's command of general background training which is represented in the student's overall residence in high school. Also it offers to an employer the individual's command of English structure and acceptable vocabulary. The standards set forth for the non-college-bound boy can be employed to the college-bound individual as the student presents himself as a candidate for entrance.

Seniors Will Appear On WRVA Quiz Program

The University of Richmond WRVA Radio Scholarship Quiz is again open to all seniors. To compete in this contest an examination

Among the college guidance counselors who attended Career Day exercises at Orange County High School was Lieutenant Lochner, representing Headquarters of the Fifth Naval District. It was learned through this representative that the Navy had in use a film entitled "The Annapolis Story," which was used to set before the young students of America the operation of the Naval Academy. It also illustrates the means and avenues employed to become a candidate to the Academy and the rewards that the Navy life will offer to the graduates of the Academy.

Plaque Presented To Football Squad

A plaque in honor of the Hornets and their undefeated season was presented to Captain Robert Edwards at the Lions' Banquet by Mr. James F. Halley. It lists the players and the coach, Paul Sizemore.

In assembly Thursday morning, Robert Edwards presented the plaque to the student body of OCHS, represented by Helen Woolfolk. The plaque has been placed in the trophy case in the lobby.

Christmas Music Rendered by Chorus

The one-hundred twenty-seven voice mixed chorus of Orange County High School presented a program of Christmas music and pageantry on Sunady afternoon, in the high school auditorium. Featurred on the program were Walter Pendleton, tenor soloist, and a double quintet comopsed of Barbara Altman, Ann Lloyd, Miriam Zirkle, Betty Talley, Julia Clinton, Lurli Phillips, Edmund Simms, Aubrey Daniel, Joe Durrer, and Randolph Miller.

The program included "Break Forth, O Beauteous, Heavenly Light" by Bach; "What Child Is This?" an old English Melody; "Silent Night" by Gruber; "Crusader's Hymn," a melody of the 12th century; "O Holy Night" by Adam and "The Hallelujah Chorus" from The Messiah by Handel.

The group presented with pageantry the Christmas Story, with Bill McMullen as narrator. Concluding the program was the tradi-

Santa Descends On School; Students Receive Many Gifts

Merry Christmas

Santa Claus will make his annual trip to OCHS today. He will arrive some time after lunch, bringing his sack which will contain gifts for many of the students.

There will be ten gifts presented to various members of the Senior class and five gifts presented to members of each of the other classes. Santa Claus will be portrayed by Elmer Clatterbuck of the Senior class.

Once again on the last day of school, before the Christmas vacation, we see the "White Christmas" boxes, donated by the student body, arrayed across the stage. Each home room representative has been in charge of the box for his room—seeing that it was wrapped in white paper and filled with canned goods and articles of clothing. These boxes will be turned over to the King's Daughters organization here in Orange, which in turn will distribute them among the needy families during the Christmas holidays.

This is to advise that by action of the State Board of Education your high school is accredited for the session 1955-56. The certificite of accreditation for your school has been forwarded to your division superintendent.

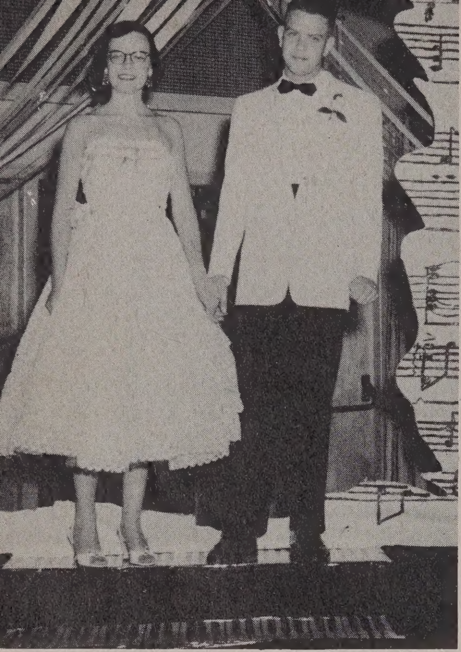
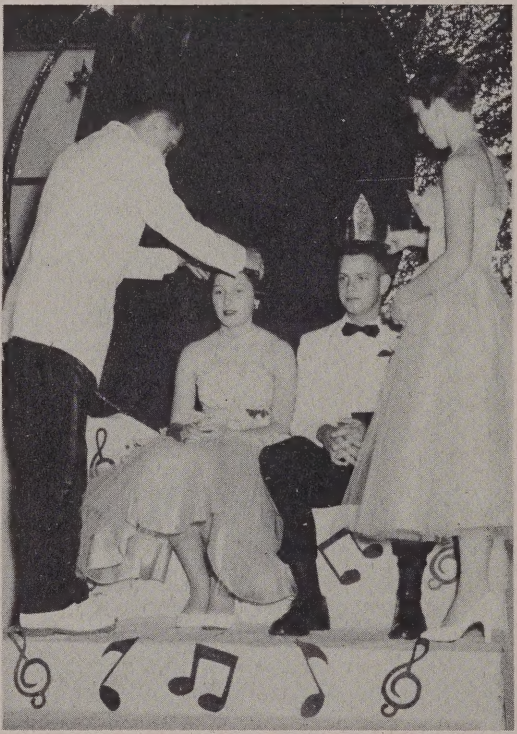
"Mathematics is the key, and applied mathematics, the tool wherewith man conquers the universe."

Features



Symphony In Blue



A step over the piano keys and we were in a world of loveliness, gaiety, and romance. The gymnasium had been transformed into an enchanting blue and silver wonderland.

For the first time a Junior-Senior Prom featured two orchestras--a full-sized Wooden Soldier Band vied with The Cavaliers.

In the soft blue lights the guests soon lost their identity and faded into an ensemble of formally clad figures swaying against a background of musical notes and a star-studded sky.

In the light of a falling star, Pitt Watts and Janice Corbin "ascended to the moon" where they were crowned King and Queen of the 1955 Prom.

All too soon the "Symphony In Blue" ended and became another "Moment To Remember."
